

WHAT IS PRAYER?

I had a call from God today.
He said, "How are you now?"
"Thanks for the call," I said
"I need some words from you".

And he replied, "What's bothering you?"
You do not seem in peace."
I said, "It's so hard to understand
My life, and where it leads."

"Why don't we chat about it,"
God said in a peaceful voice.
"I may be able to give advice
On what is bothering you."

And then I told my God
The secrets of my spiritual self
The secrets told to no one else
But comforting to tell.

This is our morning Prayer together
Each day it's not the same
One day I may give heartfelt thanks
Another seeking help.

We talk about many things
The care we need for others
The more we talk it seems to be
We draw closer to each other.

Prayer is a saving grace
Given to us in Love
Prayer connects us with our God
The great unknown that we love.
