To the Moms Who Are

To the Moms who are struggling, to those filled with incandescent joy.

To the Moms who are remembering children who have died, and pregnancies that miscarried. To the Moms who decided other parents were the best choice for their babies, to the Moms who adopted those kids and loved them fierce. To those experiencing frustration or desperation in infertility.

To those who knew they never wanted kids, and the ways they have contributed to our shared world. To those who mothered colleagues, mentees, neighbourhood kids, and anyone who needed it. To those remembering Moms no longer with us. To those moving forward from Moms who did not show love, or hurt those they should have cared for. Today is a day to honour the unyielding love and care for others we call 'Motherhood,' wherever we have found it and in whatever ways we have found to cultivate it within ourselves.

- Hannah Kardon, Pastor at Elston Avenue United Methodist Church

LECTIONARY THEMES**

MOTHER'S DAY

John 15:12-17

Three of the great commemorative days in the Australian calendar have to do with sacrifice: Good Friday, Anzac Day and Mother's Day. On these occasions we pause to acknowledge the sacrificial love seen in the death of Jesus, in the price paid by those who have died or been maimed in the armed services of our country and the self-giving of mothers for the welfare of their families.

Commercial enterprises have seized on Mothers' Day as an opportunity to make money, but that is no reason to discard the true significance of Mothers' Day. Beginning in St Andrew's Methodist Church in Grafton, West Virginia in the United States in 1907, it was transplanted to Sydney seventeen years later by Janet Hayden specifically to draw attention to the plight of lonely, elderly women that she visited in hospital.

Motherhood has undergone many changes since then, but the day has become firmly set in the Australian calendar as a day to celebrate a mother's love for her children and her family and to say thanks. With that, we draw attention to the sacrifices that love necessarily entails whether it be parental, patriotic or divine. As Jesus said in John 15:13, the greatest kind of love is the love that gives of oneself utterly and completely for the sake of the other.

What sacrifices do mothers typically make for their children and families?

- How has motherhood changed over the past fifty years?
- The Bible speaks frequently of God as Father. Is it appropriate to also speak of God as Mother?

Ascension Day

Ascension Day: Thursday 13th May

This the day upon which we pause to remember, reflect and rejoice that Christ is seated at the right hand of God, reigning!
There will be an E-Service based on Revelation 4, the vision of the throne in heaven:
"I looked, and there before me was a door standing open in heaven."

COVID Update

This week, some limitations have been lifted for food service outlets so you may notice changes when you visit the local coffee shop or restaurant. These businesses can now provide serve-yourself buffet style meals to patrons. Worship Centres remain 'restricted businesses' in terms of the COVID laws. As such, we required to continue to serve coffee and teas from the servery and, where food is involved, we would still have to serve people with all the usual protections.

COVID survives longer in the winter months. Places of Worship are reminded to keep the building well ventilated .. this means opening windows and doors. So, on those colder mornings, please rug up!!

.Jigsaw Puzzles

Maleny Church Library now has a selection of jigsaw puzzles. Look for them in the vestry. Enjoy them at you own pace & do not forget to check the large selection of books.
