QUEENSLAND SYNOD HUB

Synod Qld has a lot of information, policy, training and tools available on the 'HUB'. The Hub is located on the Synod website (at the bottom of the page)
and is available to all.

Why is this important? The HUB provides us with resources we can use in 'delivering' a contemporary Church.

SAFE CHURCH

This week at Council, we'll be approving the Safe Church Policy. It is worth reflecting on the following statement –

The Uniting Church in Australia, Qld
Synod is committed to loving and serving all people.
We commit to providing safe places where people are cared for, nurtured, and sustained. We aim to provide experiences which are free from discrimination, exclusion, bullying and abuse.

The Synod welcomes everyone. The outworking of this often requires us to meet and work with people who are from all parts of society and to hold a particular concern for those on the margins who are hurt, disadvantaged or vulnerable.

The Synod must care for children and those who are vulnerable and will seek to ensure they are safe and protected from harm. This responsibility includes reporting all incidents of suspected sexual abuse and grooming to the police.

Live in God's Light—

An Exhibition by Barbara Willcock

Catch the latest exhibition of our regular contributing artist from now until 17 February!

After a career of 39 years in Office Administration with a year's diversion as a Patisserie proprietor, Barbara moved to the Sunshine Coast with her husband in 1998. She became interested in painting in 2008 after her husband died when she undertook a water-colour painting course using her husband's now neglected paints.

She relished the experience of attempting to paint and seeing some improvement as she practiced the techniques delivered in the weekly workshops.

Although not an easy medium to begin with, Barbara was inspired to have a go and she now enjoys the challenge of painting mostly flowers and scenes from trips both at home and overseas.

In 2011 she became a member of the Blackall Range Visual Artists, a self-help art group, and their encouragement and critiques of her work have helped her to develop her own style.

Taking inspiration from God's creations around her, she is both challenged and excited to paint images that express her impression of what she sees; enjoying the form which emerges of mostly the landscape and flowers, now in water-colour, acrylic and oil.
